

Christmas at Webster University

In December, the children of one of our classes (2b) were invited to Webster University.

We were kindly welcomed by director Bernd Marin and his team. One of his staff-members Katherine Price-Beuchert gave us a tour and showed us the library and classroom-facilities.

Afterwards, we joined the students of Webster University and had a great time making paper stars, singing Christmas carols and eating cookies together.

